Hey there,

My name is Reagan Bonlie and I am in the process of making financial planning simple and accessible to everyone with my startup “Nudge”. Throughout my 12-year career in financial planning and investments, I became frustrated.

Noticing that financial planning was generally reserved for the wealthy, led me to launch my own platform. We are currently looking for beta users to test our services.

We will supply you with a personally tailored financial plan at absolutely no cost. Yes... $0, you pay nothing at all! In exchange, we are simply asking for your feedback on our service.

I am taking an educated stab in the dark here, but I do imagine that you are someone that wants to achieve their financial goals.

If that's true, I ask you to take a moment to fill out a 3-minute survey on our website. The Nudge site will give you some insightful results immediately, and my team and I will fine-tune your financial plan to ensure it's perfect. After 12 years at JPMorgan, I can confidently say that our free plans are better than the ones you would pay thousands of dollars for at Morgan Stanley, Merrill Lynch, Fidelity, etc.

Click <https://www.nudge.solutions> then “Start for Free”

We look forward to working with you!

Best,

Reagan
